Customer Reviews

First, I only counted 12 stories. Some of the titles in the listing didn't match up with the title at the beginning of the story. Each one is a stand alone book, complete and the bad guys captured. They were very simple stories and I feel they would really appeal to a very young set of readers. Especially the ones with the dogs as the heroes! There is a little flirting going on but NO sex. However, one heroine is 8 months pregnant by her fiancÃ©e, that surprised me but then maybe it did her as well. There is a gay couple, a inter-racial couple, and a mother from hell posing as a southern lady!! Course, I do know they exist because we had one in our family. She was just as bad as this mother!! On second thought, she was worse. I will just briefly review the stories that I liked best. A DIAMOND CHOKER FOR CHRISTMAS. Toni Diamond, her mother and her daughter star in this one. Her outlandish mother "borrows" an expensive necklace to wear to a Christmas part and of course, it is stolen right off her neck at the party. Toni quickly solves the crime. MENACE AT THE CHRISTMAS MARKET-Three friends are convinced that a local celebrity has been murdered but the police are not really interested because she is sending them emails from the Canary Islands. DUH, anyone can send an email. But, they keep at it until they solve this crime. There is a dog in this story as well. THE NEON ORNAMENTS-Her best friend sets her up with a local detective trying to solve a murder. The victim is a physicist and all the information is over their heads, they need a professional to help them. So, her best friend tells the single detective she can help him. They meet and she agrees to look at the information. I liked this guy. He was sweet and sexy.
