St. Augustine Ghosts: Hauntings In The Ancient City

Synopsis

St. Augustine: is it the most haunted city in America? Take a journey with historian and tour guide James Caskey to discover the facts behind St. Augustine's ghostly myths and legends. Unearth the truth surrounding the Ancient City's shadowy "Other Side" as this master storyteller combines thorough searches of historical archives, compelling analysis, and bone-chilling eyewitness accounts. St. Augustine is haunted by her turbulent, yet colorful, past. In this volume you'll be introduced to many fascinating phantoms, such as: • A prankish poltergeist who likes to break glasses at one of the city's finest restaurants; • A creepily possessive entity at a local tavern who calls himself Mr. Finkle; • One malicious ghost that, when challenged, caused a violent explosion; • And a female spirit determined to hold onto her birthright from beyond the grave. St. Augustine Ghosts: Hauntings in the Ancient City contains all of these stories and more! It is an entertaining and enlightening read for anyone interested in the arcane side of America's Oldest City. Containing street addresses and over 60 photos of all of St. Augustine's haunted hotspots, this book is perfect for any paranormal enthusiast.
