THE WITCH-PERSECUTIONS (A Short Collection Of The Witch Hunting In Europe And North America) - Annotated Wicca, Witchcraft And Paganism

Synopsis

A short collection of translations of historical documents of the witch craze. Written late in the 19th Century, this collection epitomizes pre-Murray scholarship on this subject. It doesn't attempt any analysis of the roots of the phenomena other than clerical abuse and mass insanity. Most importantly, these texts give insight into the cascading paranoia which characterizes witch hunts of any historical period. I. The Theory of Witch-Persecution.II. The Beginnings of the Witch-Persecutions.III. The Witch-Persecution at Trier.IV. The Witch-Persecution at Bonn.V. The Witch-Persecution in Scotland.VI. The Witch-Persecution at Bamberg.VII. The Witch-Persecution at Würzburg.VIII. The Methods of the Witch-Persecutions.IX. Select Bibliography.
