Customer Reviews

The Chicago Chronicles, a story supplement for Vampire the Masquerade, consists of three volumes. There are many game sessions worth playing in the three volumes and spectacular city guides to Chicago and Milwaukee. The second volume provides an updated city guide of Chicago which details all of the major players left in the city after the adventure "Under a Blood Red Moon"--which is also included in this volume. The adventure is quite stimulating, featuring an all out war between Lupines and Vampires in Chicago. Whereas the city guide provides all one needs to know to role play a campaign in Campaign. While this volume can probably stand on its own, it is very helpful to have the first volume as well. The first volume helps to acclimate the players to Chicago prior to having to engage in a challenging all out war in the city. The odd thing about the three volume set is that the adventures detailed in the third volume seem to chronologically come before the events set in the second volume. Again, these are wonderful supplements that are great to revolve a role playing campaign around. But, if nothing else, they are also fun reading that can inspire any other campaign.

This book gave alot of useful info along with maps and many charactors to use in the citys of berlin and L.A.
